2 Peter 3:7-10

After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for his judgments are true and just; for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and has avenged on her the blood of his servants." Once more they cried out, "Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up forever and ever." (Revelation 19:1-3 ESV).

-From Revelation chapter 20, the word "millennial" refers to _____ years

Comparison of Christian millennial teachings

FOUR WAYS TO READ REVELATION

© 2014 by Thomas Nelson Publishers. All rights reserved. This work is a trademark of Thomas Nelson Publishers. All other trademarks are the property of their respective owners.

1. PRETERIST: Revelation is about events in the past

The events described in Revelation all took place around the time of the letter's writing and should be read with that historical context in mind. In other words, the letter was written first and then read in thousands of the first century, under Roman rule and persecution. As such, we need to understand how they would have originally read it, before applying it to ourselves.

2. FUTURIST: Revelation is about events in the future

The events described in Revelation were predicted to take place in the far distant future, at least from the point of view of the original readers. So, the focus is on events that are still to come, including things like "The Tribulation" and "The Millennium."

3. HISTORICIST: Revelation is about all of history

Revelation describes the key events of history stretching from the death and resurrection of Jesus to his return as judge. It can be seen as a timetable by which we can interpret "the signs of the times." In other words, world events today are described in Revelation.

4. IDEALIST: Revelation is about timeless principles

Revelation isn't talking about a specific time. It is talking about a pattern of events or trends that will be repeated throughout history. So, it's an encouragement to God's people at all times who face persecution. In that sense, it is a "timeless" message.
