*There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.
(Ecclesiastes 3:1).*

BIG LESSON FROM ECCLESIASTES:

When you leave _____ out of the picture, your life is like chasing after the wind. You are on a constant and cruel search for meaning that you will _____ find.

But if you include _____ in your life, it makes all the difference.

Reflections from chapter 3:

1. The Seasons of Life are C_____

In Psalm 90, Solomon's father, David, wrote: Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom (v. 12).

2. The Seasons of Life are P_____

The Apostle Paul told us that "we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

3. The Seasons of Life are T_____

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad (2 Corinthians 5:10).
